

Invitation: Concept consultation

FROM THE IDEA TO THE ARTISTIC CONCEPT: Individual online counselling with Matthias Quabbe

This individual consultation offers support for processes in which an artistic project is being conceptually developed and planned, e.g. during or after a research phase. The offer is aimed at choreographers from NRW who are in the process of developing an artistic concept.

Matthias Quabbe, as an experienced dramaturge and coach for concept development, accompanies the structuring of ideas, approaches and materials in dialogue. Together, the next steps towards a concept are set in motion. The aim is to outline the pillars of content, to address directions and possibilities, and possibly to work out the offside. This offer is not a consultation for an application.

- A maximum of two meetings of 60 minutes each will take place via Zoom.
- Appointments are initially offered until December 2023 and are arranged individually.
- The offer is free of charge.
